Your music was absolutely perfect and not only did it make our wedding stand out from every other wedding we'd ever been to, we thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the music, as did everyone else who attended.

I don't know how many people came up to tell me how much they loved the trio, how different it was and that this made the wedding so elegant....Our wedding was so special to us, but having you there made it unique as well and I know that no one will soon forget it...”

“...Thanks again for the wonderful performance this past weekend! I wanted to let you know that several of the guests have since phoned me to say how much they enjoyed the music and especially your skills on the 6 string! ...Several people commented on how suitable the volume and physical set up was (allowing people to enjoy the music and socialize at the same time). They also commented on the good variety of song selection...With close friends and family present, the party was certain to be fun, but I can sincerely say it was the best party I've been to / hosted primarily because of your music...”
